When the la - dy smiles she holds me in her hand,

When the la - dy smiles you know it dri - ves me wild. Her lips are warm and re - source - ful. When her fin - ger - tips go draw - ing cir - cles in the night and the mood is soft and sen - su - al. Then I love it, yeah I love it. It's the ans - wer to all my dreams, cause ev'ry time we meet 't feels like the earth is shak - ing. It does - n't mat - ter a glass is fal - ling, I hear it shat - ter, may - be it's rain - ing, fas - ter and fas - ter, sha - dow danc - ing, oh, I, I'm bet - ting on the game of love.

Oh, I, I am bet-ting that love is gon-na come out when the walls— no lon-ger shout— back at me— and I'm feel-ing proud.
 When the la - dy— smiles— she holds me in her hand,— as a mat-ter of fact she could al-ways let me down.
 But when the la - dy— smiles— I can't re-sist her call,— as a mat-ter of fact I don't re-sist at all.—
 'cause we're walk-ing on clouds.— and she is lead-ing— the way. My friends tell— me: she's the beast in - side your— pa - ra - dise.— I guess you've heard— it all be-fore.—
 A fal-len an - gel— that has got you hyp - no - tised—and that al - ways needs some more.—
 But I love— it. Yeah— I love it.—
